"Making a Difference" Award Winner

This award is a peer-chosen, quarterly award given to an employee who truly makes a difference in the lives of our members, community, and co-workers.

When not at work, we can find Jill: Spending time with her son—they like attending Wild and Twins games and exploring state parks.

Jill's favorite part of her job is: Helping members understand how credit works and ways to improve their credit so they can obtain future loans.

A hidden talent of hers is: Playing piano

Guilty pleasure television show: Hallmark Movies

What's your favorite thing about going into the spring season: Twins baseball and going on hikes

Something interesting about Jill that most people don't know is: She broke her leg in 7th grade and on a family vacation, she left her crutches at the top of a mountain in Colorado! The whole family had to drive back up the mountain to get them.

Her favorite place she has ever been is: Florida for Twins Spring Training with her son and Sanibel Island

Favorite quote: "When you forgive, you heal. When you let go, you grow."

Jill P.
AVP of Credit & Risk
